

Jancis Robinson
JancisRobinson.com

DOMAINE CORDIER PÈRE & FILS

Dom Cordier Père & Fils, Vers Asnières 2012 Pouilly-Fuissé 16.5 Drink 2014-2017

Less open than the Vignes Blanches, and less oaky too, seemingly. Pretty plump fruit – lacks a bit of acidic definition. Lovely, warming and fleshy – very particular style, and fair game for the Mâconnais. (RH)

Dom Cordier Père & Fils, Vers Cras 2012 Pouilly-Fuissé 17+ Drink 2014-2022

Tight, lively palate. Some green fruit and chalkiness – reminds me of Chablis, in fact, though it is far fuller in body. Lovely acidic line. Light mealiness. Likely to age well. (RH)

Dom Cordier Père & Fils, Vignes Blanches 2012 Pouilly-Fuissé 17 Drink 2014-2020

Trademark oak spice on the nose, but lots of fruit backup, and a lovely ripe fruitiness too. Smoky, flinty character adds an extra dimension. Good stuff. (RH)